Charity blow after fun run is called off

Callum set to join Fagin's gang

A NINE-YEAR-OLD boy who has not had a singing lesson is to tread the boards as part of the cast of the West End musical Oliver. Callum Henderson's achievement is all the more remarkable because his dad died just a week before he took part in his first audition for the BBC series to choose Oliver in February.

The plucky youngster sang Where is Love at his father's funeral, then went on to win his way to the last 50 from the 3,500 original applicants, although he failed to reach the final 12. Callum, a pupil at St Felix Primary School, Haverhill, was then taken onto the books of the Sylvia Young Agency in London.

He was asked to audition for the rest of the cast and has a final audition in September. However, arrangements are already being made for his accommodation and education when he starts a six-month spell as part of Fagin's gang. Proud mum Tina of Parkside, Haverhill, said although Callum sang all the time at home, she had not been aware of how good his voice was until it was spotted by his school music teacher Petra Stephenson. Tina said: "The school have been brilliant. "His music teacher said she had never heard such perfect pitch and suggested that we might contact some form of stage school. "We saw the ads for Oliver and although he did really well to get so far we thought that was the end of it. "Since then it has been quite surreal how quickly things have moved on. She added: "We have to commit to six months and it will be quite hard for him. Because of his age he can only do three days out of nine and I will have to get him to the stage door by 6pm. "He has only been doing this a short time, whereas a lot of the children have been trying to get to this stage for years. "It will be a wonderful opportunity for him and everyone at the school is really excited for him."

LOCAL charities will miss out on hundreds of pounds this summer after the cancellation of Haverhill Round Table's 10.5-1 Fun Run.

Race organiser Phil Parrott said the run, which has been an annual event for the past eight years, had been called off after a mix-up over race permits.

The event, planned for Sunday, July 27, normally attracts at least 300 runners for the 10km Suffolk Championship road race which is organised alongside the fun run. Mr Parrott said: "We are disappointed but there is nothing we can do about it. We have been desperately trying to sort the permits out, but due to a change in legislation we did not apply soon enough. You used to be able to apply six to eight weeks before the event, but now it is six months and nobody told us.

"We will try to do something, perhaps a 5k run in September, and we will definitely be doing 10k again next year."

The Round Table has organised 10k and 5k runs as well as a 1k fun walk for the past eight years and estimated last year that more than £10,000 had been raised for worthy causes in the Haverhill area.

Haverhill Town Council's Big Bash will still go ahead as planned from 10am to 5pm on the recreation ground on July 27, with charity stalls from local organisations, a car boot sale, music from Haverhill Silver Band and live theatre.

Mr Parrott said Round Table members would still be raising money for charity on the day, selling parking spaces at the back of Gurteens and offering car washes at the same time.

Shoppers and dance boost appeal funds

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial
@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CLOSE to £2,000 has helped to boost the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal over the past week – with promises of more cash still coming in.

Wickhambrook's charity fundraisers handed over £927 to the appeal from their 60s dance featuring The Fortunes last month.

They have also pledged to give the proceeds from their next event with Union Gap on September 6 and their New Year's Eve party.

Shoppers at Sainsbury's dipped into their pockets on Friday and Saturday as former Haverhill Town Mayor Tim Marks helped to raise £750 by rattling a collection box.

As we head towards the halfway mark in our campaign to raise £40,000 for the hospice to pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes rather than travelling to Bury St Edmunds, we have been overwhelmed by the generosity of so many groups and individuals.

Wickhambrook's women fundraisers Roz Clarry, Marise Morling,

Lyn Newell and Jan King, had already raised £5,000 for the hospice with a series of charity dance, car boot sales and bingo sessions.

About 140 people enjoyed The Fortunes event in the village on June 3 and some fans even travelled from Gloucester to attend.

Staging the events is expensive, with most of the ticket price taken up with the cost of the group and the hall, and the profits are made from generously donated prizes and well supported raffles.

The fundraisers have already donated more than £1,000 to our appeal from previous events, including a single donation of £500 from one business.

Roz said: "Everyone enjoyed the night and a lot of people are very generous with raffle prizes because they know that is how we raise the money."

"A lot of people who were at the dance that night have had someone die at the hospice and they said how important it is for people to be able to stay at home."

Ian Norris, fundraiser at St Nicholas accepted the cash and said: "It is wonderful because they have been doing this for us for so long."

"They are in their fourth year now. The Hospice at Home Appeal is a very big thing for us."

The next event the women will be holding is a car boot sale at the recreation ground on Sunday, July 27, from 1-4pm, with pitches £5 on the day.

For more information or tickets for future dances, call (01440) 820757, 820155 or 820481.

Don't forget to let us know of your fundraising plans for the appeal and we will publicise it for you.

Call (01440) 703891 or email jo.deeks@cambridge-news.co.uk

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help to publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Cars attacked by graffiti vandals

POLICE are linking two incidents where offensive graffiti was sprayed on to cars parked in Haverhill on the same afternoon.

A graffiti image was painted on to a grey Mitsubishi Shogun at Thurlow Place, Haverhill, and offensive wording on a red BMW at Newton Place, both incidents occurring between 3.30pm and 4.40pm on Monday. Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to Pc Ian Davies at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Grab a bargain

HAVERHILL Salvation Army will hold a garage sale at its headquarters in Gloucester Road on Saturday, July 19, from 10am until 12noon.

There will be a vast choice of furniture to view, buy or take away. Beds, wall units, tables and chairs, three-piece suites, armchairs, coffee tables, TV units and more will be on offer. Furniture can also be delivered.

The shop will also be open, with clothes, bedding, bric-a-brac, books, videos and toys and refreshments also available.

Vehicle scratched

A BLACK Volvo S40 was scratched all along the nearside while parked in a street in Haverhill for just 20 minutes.

The damage was caused at Keebles Yard, between 6.30pm and 6.50pm on Friday. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Ian Davies at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Co-op application

A REVISED listed building application to retain a new refrigeration plant to the rear and replacement condenser units at the Co-op store in Market Hill, Clare, has been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

New homes plan

A CONSERVATION area application to demolish part of a former auction house, convert the rest of the existing building into a home and build two new houses at Church Street, Clare, has been resubmitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Housing scheme

FIVE houses with four single garages and associated parking areas could be built on land to the rear of 17-35 Wrattling Road, Haverhill, if an application to St Edmundsbury Borough Council is approved.

Drama as giant helicopter lands on playing field

VILLAGERS had a noisy surprise when a giant helicopter made an emergency landing.

The relieved airmen, who landed their Chinook helicopter safely on the village playing field, even asked villagers where they were.

Pat Taylor captured the incident on film, including the perturbed RAF personnel studying a road map.

Pat said: "I heard this terrific noise and thought 'It is going to crash'. I ran out and they did a controlled landing."

"These three gorgeous young men emerged and I asked if they wanted to use my toilet. They said no, but I was amused when they came out with a road map and asked 'can you tell us where we are?'"

"They said a bird had hit their engine, which is apparently quite common when they fly below 50 feet."

"A second Chinook landed nearby to check their engine and, as no damage had occurred, they both took off again."

"I think they were on a training exercise and it certainly caused some excitement in the village."

The incident happened at Stoke by Clare on Monday and is not the first time an aircraft has landed on this particular field. More than 60 years ago the famous aviator Amy Johnson (the first woman to fly solo from England to Australia in May 1930) landed her plane at the same spot when visiting her close friends Lord and Lady Locke, who lived at the house nearby, now Stoke College.

John Gibson, headteacher at Stoke College, an independent school with 28 acres of grounds next to the playing fields, said pupils were outside in their lunch break when the aircraft landed.

Mr Gibson said: "They did see it and the younger ones were quite excited because it was something different."

"Strangely, it is not as unusual as you might think to see helicopters around here as a couple of our parents have helicopters and we have had one land in our grounds before now to bring a pupil back to school."

A spokesman for the Ministry of Defence said the Chinook made a precautionary landing following a bird strike.

It was checked for damage and when none was found, took off and returned to its base at RAF Odiham, in Hampshire.

Cowboys gunnin' for a good time

STETSONS and six shooters were the draw of the day at the Haverhill Show bringing out the weekend crowds.

The two-day show is the main annual fundraiser for LAMPH, the Haverhill-based charity for children and adults with disabilities.

This year, it had a western theme was in memory of the late Reg Weller a remarkable former town resident who carried on performing rope tricks at past events until he was in his late 80s.

Visitors to the show were invited to join in the fun by wearing fancy dress outfits as either cowboys or indians.

New attractions this year included a reptile marquee and a glamorous granny contest and knobbly knees.

There were also regular attractions like the car boot sale, baby show, dog show, dancing, karate, classic car and motor bike displays.

Reg spent most of his life as a professional musician, then as he suffered from arthritis took up rope spinning to keep his fingers supple.

He was a true perfectionist practising for five years before performing in public, and went on to do many shows for various charities.

Ron Neaves, a close friend and neighbour of Reg at his previous home in Hounslow visited Haverhill for the show.

He said: "He was an amazing man, I think it is marvellous to have the show in his memory, I think he would have loved it."

Where do my kids play now?

Sir, I was totally disgusted to open my front door to see someone from Haverbury putting up a "No Ball Games" sign on the green outside my house.

I have lived there for almost three years. I chose to buy my house because of the location as it was a safe area for my children to play outside where I could keep an eye on them.

One of my children is only nine so he is too young in my eyes to go too far from home to play. I also have a child with ADHD so he needs to be watched most of the time, so playing outside my house was ideal for him and myself. In my opinion, putting this sign up will encourage children to go elsewhere and get up to no good, instead of playing a harmless game of football close to home. I have spoken to Haverbury council regarding this and was told this sign was to prevent the older kids from playing football there. They were quite happy for the younger ones to carry on playing there. This then makes me think what a waste of our money putting the sign up in the first place if I can now tell my children they can ignore the sign and play as before. What is this world coming to I ask myself.

Four held after raids

FOUR people were arrested in dawn drugs raids in Haverhill on Tuesday in a major police operation by officers from Suffolk, Cambridgeshire and London.

Weapons, drugs, including cocaine, cash and vehicles were seized in the 6am swoops at three addresses in Haverhill, as well as in Whittlesford, Cambridgeshire, and north London. A total of seven people were arrested in connection with an investigation into the supply of class A drugs, including the four from Haverhill who were still being questioned at Bury St Edmunds Police Station yesterday.

Police executed three search warrants at Elmhurst Close, Cleves Road, and Gannet Close in Haverhill, and two men, aged 38 and 31, and two women, aged 30 and 26, all from Haverhill, were arrested on suspicion of conspiring to supply class A drugs.

The Metropolitan police and Cambridgeshire police executed four warrants, which led to three people being arrested and drugs and cash being seized.

A 21-year-old man from Whittlesford was arrested on suspicion of conspiring to supply class A drugs and remains in custody. A 43-year old man and a 41-year-old woman, both from Whittlesford, arrested on suspicion of money laundering were released on police bail.

Summer holidays are hot for entertainment

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PLENTY of fun and games to keep families occupied during the summer holidays are included in Haverhill Town Council's Summer in Haverhill programme for this year.

They include the Big Day Out on Wednesday, July 30, at Haverhill Recreation Ground, which this year will feature a climbing wall, bungee trampoline and a flight simulator, as well as other activities, workshops, demonstrations, advice and information.

The Big Bash, Haverhill's charity fundraising day, takes place on Sunday, July 27, again at the recreation ground. In addition to stalls from local organisations, there will be music from Haverhill Silver Band, a car boot sale and theatre. Ramshackalicious will perform The Road to Nowhere, an extraordinary concoction of clowning, storytelling and live music.

There will be more theatre in store as Heartbreak Productions bring their adaptation of Peter Pan, a chance for the whole family to picnic at wonderful Never, Never Land (otherwise known as East Town Park) on Saturday, July 26.

The arts centre will again host a selection of family and children's events to ward off the boredom: First up is Alan in Wonderland on August 13, a funny, offbeat alternative to Alice in Wonderland. Muppet-style puppets, The Three Singing Pigs, will be singing, rapping and storytelling on August 21 in a show based on Kay Umansky's book, followed by a workshop of musical games and compositions. Beatrix Potter's tale of The Town Mouse and The Country Mouse has been updated by Openwide Theatre Company for August 28.

The popular Dance East summer workshops return with Summer Garden Adventure, a two-day workshop for six to nine year olds from Thursday July 31, to Friday, August 1, and Drum 'n' Dance, a three-day workshop for those aged 10-14 from August 4 to August 6, both based at the arts centre.

■ CLOWNING AROUND... Ramshackalicious will perform The Road to Nowhere.

CP

Big blockbusters coming to Haverhill Arts Centre cinema include, Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull, Speed Racer, The Incredible Hulk, The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian and Kung Fu Panda.

In a free event on the Market Square on Saturday, August 16, The Brotherhood of Man tell "The 70s Story". And memories will come flooding back as the original line-up perform Save Your Kisses For Me, complete with that famous dance.

The following Saturday, August 23, sees another free event in the Market Square with The Great Big Tribute Night.

The Scizzor Sisterz perform a "filthy gorgeous" tribute to one of the hottest bands of recent years, but if legwarmers are more your thing you can re-live the glory days of Prince, Frankie Goes to Hollywood, Duran Duran and Wham with So 80s.

Other musical treats in store are the Haverhill Silver Band, (July 27) Body and Soul Jazz Band (August 10) and Hadstock Silver Band (August 31) all at the Millennium Bandstand on the recreation ground. And to celebrate a particularly significant birthday for town mayor Les Ager, Brass on the Square on Saturday, August 2, on Market Square, will mark the occasion with a programme of popular light music.

Haverhill Town Council arts and leisure manager Nick Keeble said: "We've yet to find out whether we're in for a good summer weather-wise but at least we do know that there are loads of activities that individuals and families can do right here in Haverhill."

For more information, to request a Summer in Haverhill booklet, or to book tickets for any of these events call Haverhill Arts Centre box office on (01440) 714140.

Drinker banned from pubs after assault

A DRINKER has been banned from all pubs and clubs in Haverhill after slapping a barman who refused to serve him.

Steel erector Gary Dickson had taken cocaine before drinking in the town's Bell pub where the incident happened, a court heard.

Dickson, 41, was given a 16-week prison sentence suspended for 18 months and was banned from all pubs and clubs in the town for 18 months. He was also ordered to pay £200 compensation to barman Thomas Lawrence.

Dickson, of Fallowfield Court, Haverhill, admitted assaulting Mr Lawrence and breaching a previous suspended sentence when he appeared before District Judge David Cooper at Bury St Edmunds Magistrates' Court.

He was also made the subject of supervision by the probation service for 18 months and was ordered to pay £60 prosecution costs.

Judge Cooper told him: "You are very fortunate not to go straight to prison."

The court heard Dickson's 10-year-old son Brandon had undergone an operation for a brain tumour in March.

CLARE Priory will be holding its popular annual craft fair this weekend.

The 14th century house and its picturesque gardens will be the perfect venue and setting for the exhibition which is expected to receive up to 10,000 visitors over the two days.

The craft fair has been taking place at Clare Priory since 1993 and offers something for all age groups.

Visitors can expect to see up to 160 stalls selling jewellery, paintings, cards, sculpture, pottery, plants and much more. The stalls are located in marquees in the Priory grounds and some stalls will be located on the ground floor of the house. There will also be demonstrations of various crafts taking place over the weekend and a Punch and Judy show to keep the children entertained. The majority of the exhibitors are from the Suffolk and Essex area and have been regulars at the fair since it was formed. The fair also attracts exhibitors from further afield.

Located next to Clare Country Park, visitors could also explore the ruins at the park if time allows or even venture in to the medieval village of Clare.

■ STALLS... more than 160 of them, all multi-varied!

■ THE CLARE PRIORY CRAFT FAIR... annual event is a weekend must.

There will be a tea and beer tent at the fair and Project 7 will be serving delicious hot and cold foods. All money raised at the fair will go towards the new church and other causes in the community.

The fair will take place this Saturday and Sunday. Opening times are 10am-6pm on Saturday and 11am-5pm on Sunday. Admission charges are: adults £3.50, seniors £2.50 and accompanied under 14's free.

Brave girl is 'the face' of charity campaigns

A YOUNG girl who has bounced back to health after pioneering bone marrow transplant surgery just 18 months ago is having her picture used to promote two charity campaigns.

Three-year-old Sorrell Mason was desperately ill with leukaemia when she went to the Bristol Children's Hospital.

She underwent a new procedure using stem cells from Japan, as a suitable donor could not be found for her.

She then had to stay in isolation for months to avoid infection while her immune cells built up and could not mix with other children, including her younger sister Daisy, two.

But Sorrell is now back home at Great Wratting

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

playing happily with her sister and relieved parents Robert and Samantha, and is doing so well that she is expected to join a playgroup in September.

The lively youngster is so inspirational that she has been used as a case study by the Anthony Nolan Trust and her picture was featured on the brochure for the group's annual general meeting, as well as on its "Big Smile" raffle tickets and website.

Sorrell is also to be the "face" of EasyJet's Charity Of The Year (Anthony Nolan Trust), an internal campaign among EasyJet staff and her photo will be used in staff rooms and briefing packs.

Mr Mason said: "She is a really lively, happy child and she and Daisy are great mates.

"It is lovely to see them running around together. She can mix with other children now and her immune levels are very good.

"She had a couple of colds during the winter but seemed to shrug them off better than the rest of us.

"She has been very healthy and has not been in hospital since last November, only for check-ups."

He added: "I contacted a number of charities we had benefited from because we wanted to give something back and the Anthony Nolan Trust were very interested in using her as a case study because her treatment is a new area and they have not got a great deal of information about it."

The family plans to hold a donor recruitment clinic for the Anthony Nolan Trust, probably at the Clements Surgery, later in the year.

Mr Mason said they needed to make sure there would be enough interest to warrant the Anthony Nolan staff coming to the clinic, where anyone aged from 18-40 can go along and give a blood donation to be added to the register.

He said: "We hope people will support the donor clinic, all you have to do is give a blood sample and you are registered until you are 60.

"You will probably never get called on, but there is a chance you could save someone's life.

"For the clinic to go ahead we need a number of volunteers to agree to attend in advance, and so we would like people to come forward now."

Anyone interested should contact Robert Mason by email at robert.mason@btconnect.com and he will send some more relevant information, and then keep them posted with details about the clinic.

Composting is the way forward

■ ORGANIC WASTE ... a third of a household's waste at home can be turned into compost.

Practice environmental awareness from home

NOW is a great time to get out in the garden and enjoy the sunshine and it is also a perfect time to take up home composting.

There are hundreds of excellent reasons for composting at home, but many people are simply unaware that this is one of the easiest ways they can help the environment in their own daily life.

Each year two wheelbarrow loads of organic waste are produced for every person in England. That's enough organic waste annually to fill the Royal Albert Hall more than 400 times over. This waste can be recycled in to nutrient-rich compost for use for all manner of plants in gardens up and down the country.

It is not just garden trimmings that can be composted. A staggering third of a household's waste can be composted at home and that can make a huge difference to the amount of waste which is sent to landfill sites each year. When organic waste is sent to landfill it gets buried under other waste and decomposes without oxygen, producing the powerful greenhouse gas, methane. However, when the same waste is composted at home it breaks down with oxygen and no methane is emitted. By composting at home you also cut down on the amount of energy used annually on transporting domestic waste to landfill sites all over the country and get free fertiliser for use on plants and gardens.

All you need to start composting at home is a compost bin – discounted bins are available from www.recyclenow.com/compost. Just input your postcode to see which compost bins are available in your area. Once you've purchased a bin you need to site it somewhere easily accessible in the garden, preferably directly on the earth so worms can find their way into the bin.

Filling up the bin is simple. Many people who already home compost are unaware of the variety of items that can be recycled by home composting. Uncooked fruit and vegetable peelings from the kitchen can go straight in to the compost bin, as well as dead flowers and plant prunings.

In order to create a balanced compost, you need to ensure that you mix these 'greens' with equal amounts of fibrous 'browns' like crumpled paper, cereal boxes, insides of toilet rolls or shredded paper. The perfect mix of green and brown items create an environment where microbes can break down the mix of organic waste naturally into a rich dark compost for use on plants and gardens. Other items you might not have thought you could compost include:

- Egg shells;
- Tea bags;
- Coffee grounds;
- Dog hair;
- Hamster bedding
- The contents of your vacuum cleaner.

If you want to cut down on the number of trips you make to the bin, it would be worth getting a composting caddy for your home. You can use the caddy to store up biodegradable household waste such as vegetable peelings but you need only empty it into your compost bin when it is convenient. You can buy compost caddies from many retailers and the Recycle Now website, or alternatively you can just use an old ice cream tub.

Home compost is a product that will help your garden and the environment as a whole – putting valuable nutrients back into the soil and helping gardens to look healthier and more beautiful. For further tips on how to use your finished compost please visit www.recyclenow.com/compost

Mayor puts cash into food bank

THE FIRST food bank in Suffolk is being set up in Haverhill and has already received a boost by being adopted by Cllr Robert Cockle, the Mayor of St Edmundsbury, as one of his nominated charities. Cllr Cockle handed over a cheque for £250 to Henry Wilson, community project manager for the food bank, and said any profits raised during his year of office would be divided between that and his three other nominated charities. He thanked Haverhill borough councillor Anne Gower, who nominated the charity, for telling him about it. Cllr Cockle said: "Hopefully, by the end of the year we shall have a few more shillings. I wish you all the best, you are doing a good job." Cllr Les Ager, Haverhill Town Mayor, also attended and said: "I wish them well with it, it is obviously a very good project." Haverhill Food Bank is a community project supported by Haverhill and District Churches Together. The aim of the food bank is to provide a safety net for the people of Haverhill and surrounding villages in times of crisis. The food bank concept is a simple one: the team will collect and store non-perishable food donated by members of the public at sites like supermarkets, churches, schools or charities and other groups. People who receive these food boxes will have been assessed by care service professionals such as health visitors, probation officers or pastoral workers. Mr Wilson said: "This is fantastic news for us and for the people of Haverhill. Start up costs are a bit daunting and the support of the mayor will make a real difference to our success. It will also help us to raise our profile. "It is our experience that unexpected events, like benefit delays or cuts, relationship breakdown, bereavement, or redundancy can put people into temporary financial crisis. When that occurs it can take a while before the official support networks take effect and in the meantime there is little by way of practical support available. The food bank will step into that situation and provide free emergency food until alternative support is received. "At present we are setting up the project and aim to start collecting the food in September to tie in with Harvest Festivals. The boxes will then be available for distribution shortly afterwards." If anyone would like further details call (01440) 705196.

Police seek man after garage raid

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial
@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

POLICE have released a CCTV image of a man they would like to trace following a robbery at a petrol station in Haverhill.

The robbery happened on Friday, June 27, at around 9.55pm when a man entered the Jet North Street garage on Manor Road and told staff he had a gun, showing them a gun-shaped object through a carrier bag. He was given a quantity of cash and left.

The offender is described as a white male, in his late 20s or early 30s, with short hair and stubble. He was wearing a grey baseball cap, jeans and a black Puffa-style jacket.

Det Sgt Stuart Jeans said: "This appears to be an isolated incident which was very frightening for the staff involved, who were left shaken but unhurt."

"I would like to hear from anyone who was in the petrol station or nearby around the time of the robbery, including a man seen walking his dog who tied it up outside before entering the shop and then leaving again across the forecourt a short time later.

"I also want to hear from anyone who recognises the man in the CCTV image, or the man himself, as they all could hold important information about this crime."

Police are appealing for anyone who may have seen this man in Haverhill around the time of the robbery to contact Pc Paul Gant at Haverhill CID on (01473) 613500 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

■ A 36-year old man from Bury St Edmunds, who was arrested on suspicion of robbery, has been released without charge and no further action will be taken against him.

Burglar takes purse in raid on house

A PURSE was stolen by a burglar who entered a house through an insecure door in the afternoon.

The purse was stolen from Minster Road, Haverhill, between 3pm and 4.30pm on Sunday.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Benjamin Vann at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

AN 11-year-old girl was accosted on her way to school at Haverhill by a man who asked her to join him for dinner.

The incident happened at Millfields Way, Haverhill, at around 8.20am on Tuesday, July 1. The man approached her as she walked along and she ran away to school. The man is described as white, in his 50s, scruffy looking, and wearing a green coat, jeans and large glasses. He was walking a scruffy dog. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Guy Ainsworth on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Arrests

TWO MEN were arrested after being seen entering the property of an elderly woman in Haverhill. Police were called to Chalkstone Way at 11.05am on Wednesday and later arrested a 23-year-old and a 40-year-old man.

Haverhill

THE monthly meeting of Haverhill and District Branch of U3A (University of the Third Age) was held at the arts centre. Members were welcomed by the chairman, Jan Howley.

The guest speaker was Alison Horsley on the work of the air ambulance. Alison must be classed as one of the branch's most interesting speakers with her in-depth knowledge of the Air Ambulance Service, how it works and is funded. The service costs on average around £2,000 a day to maintain and operate with much of the funding coming from lotteries, raffles, the sale of Christmas cards and help from inheritance tax donations. Alison related some of the life-saving operations that are carried out.

There is still one place open for an outing to Burghley House and gardens, Lincolnshire, on Thursday, October 2, the cost of which will be £21.50 including entrance fee, fare and driver's tip. Contact Margaret Stary on 702688.

The Walking, Talking, Lunching Group met at Long Melford for their June walk, where they enjoyed the long open views and church before returning to The Hare for food and chatter.

The next walk on July 21 starts at Hundon Plough at 10.30am.

The Church Crawlers Group met and 15 members visited churches at Chevington and Cowlinge. The next outing will be on July 23 to the Catholic Church of Our Lady and the English Martyrs, Hills Road Cambridge, meeting at the rectory at 11.40am for a guided tour. The bus stops just before the church at about 11.35am. Lunch will be at the Gonville Hotel.

Gardening Group I members travelled to the Abbey Gardens, Bury St Edmunds, for a tour conducted by head gardener Steve Burgess, who gave a comprehensive history of the gardens, once the site of a small church for the remains of Saint Edmund. Gardening Group II went to Audley End and were given a tour of the kitchen garden and house.

The Art Appreciation Group have been studying Renaissance art in Italy and Northern Europe.

The speaker at the next meeting of the U3A on July 29 will be Derek Hunt on stained glass windows.

Kedington

PRIZE winners in the June draw of the Community Association Village Ernie were: Mrs Symonds (1413) £47; Mr P Jeffrey (1402) £20.18; Mrs L Kemp (1138) £13.45; Mrs M Driver (1310) £13.45; Mrs Steed (1157) £6.73; Mr B Watts (1276) £6.73; Mrs P Wheeler (1303) £6.73; Mrs P Hunt (1204) £6.73; Mr L Mynott (1193) £6.73; Mrs D Cowling (1249) £6.73. Total paid to KCA, £134.55. Promoter Mrs S Brown, 30 Risbridge Drive.

Two churches in the Stourhead Benefice are taking part in the Open Churches Week, of July 15 to 21. Kedington and Great Bradley are open as usual throughout the day and receive many visitors from around the world. A fresh entry in Kedington's visitors' book records visitors from South Africa, as well as Kent and farther afield.

The monthly whist drive organised by Bob Parkin in aid of the local branch of the Royal British Legion was held at the Legion Hall with three and a half tables in play, due mainly to the holiday period.

MC was Lesley Parkin and refreshments were organised by Marjorie and Brenda Parkin.

Prize winners were: Ladies, 1, Mrs G Double; 2, Mrs E Green; 3, Mrs H Mynott; miniature, Mrs R Brown; consolation, Mrs P Carpenter. Man, 1, Mr I Mason; 2, Mr R Parkin; 3, Mrs S Wakeman; (playing gent) miniature, Mr J Green; consolation, Martin. The organiser voiced thanks to those who continue to support the drives and the next drive will be on July 22.

Suspended jail term for teacher with child porn

A TEACHER who admitted downloading a huge cache of child porn from the internet has avoided being jailed.

Alastair Robson, 43, appeared at Ipswich Crown Court to be sentenced after pleading guilty to 12 specimen charges of possession of indecent images of children.

The court heard how Robson, until the time of his arrest a sixth form teacher, had developed an addiction to pornographic pictures of boys aged between 13 and 15 years.

Robert Sadd, prosecuting, said that after Robson admitted to a mental health worker what was on his home computer, police were informed and he was arrested.

Checks revealed that Robson, formerly of Railway Terrace, Kedington, and now living in a caravan because of his financial situation, had amassed a total of 2,828 still images and 123 movies, some of boys as young as eight and more than 290 categorised as being of the most serious nature.

Mitigating, John Hunter said that Robson suffered from depression, adjustment disorder and suicidal tendencies.

He said: "He is a man of hitherto good character, who as a result of these proceedings has lost everything including his friends."

He has expressed considerable remorse, shame and regret for what he had done."

Robson had a 17-year career in teaching but as a result of the case lost his job and any chance of teaching again. He had never overstepped the mark with any of his students.

Judge John Devaux told Robson that while he clearly suffered from problems, the offences involved were very serious, but taking into account all the circumstances, he imposed a 26-week jail term, suspended for two years.

Robson is to remain under probation service supervision for two years and was banned indefinitely from working with children.

Jobs threat as firm plans to move production abroad

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

MORE than 60 people are set to lose their jobs when the last major toothbrush factory in Britain closes.

Workers at the Wisdom toothbrush factory in Colne Valley Road, Haverhill, have been warned that their jobs are at risk if plans to move production abroad go ahead.

The company has been making toothbrushes in Haverhill since the end of the Second World War and is the only major brand which still has a manufacturing base in this country.

Wisdom is Britain's largest toothbrush manufacturer and exports all over the world.

Last year around 30 jobs were cut at the factory.

Now the owners of Wisdom, Norwegian-based Jordan Group, has announced its intention to move production to the Far East next year.

But the company will maintain a research and product development team at Haverhill where around 30 people will continue to work.

A company spokesman said: "Although the proposal to close the UK's last remaining significant toothbrush factory is a disappointment, the intention of the proposal is to enable the group to utilise further its expertise in toothbrush development, while also benefiting from more competitive product cost."

Consultations with unions and the workers involved have started.

■ SEA TRIAL . . . Dorrian Smyth, Aaron Digby and Martin French, who are raising cash for the Addenbrooke's Hospital Paediatric Intensive Care Unit.

Trio paddling for a good cause

THREE friends will be paddling from the river to the sea to boost the coffers of Addenbrooke's Hospital's Paediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU). Martin French, Aaron Digby and Dorrian Smyth, from Haverhill, will be travelling by canoe from Sudbury's Quay Theatre to the Catterwade bridge, which represents the end of the River Stour and the start of the Harwich estuary, a total distance of 30.55 kilometres. Their "Sudbury 2 the Sea Take it to the Bridge" event will take place on Saturday, July 19, and they hope to raise as much cash as possible for the unit. Martin is married to Sue French, the ward manager on PICU, and his nephew was treated there a few years ago. Martin said: "We currently paddle at 3.2km an hour so with breaks it's going to be an arduous 12-hour day. Please support us on this worthy challenge. "Dorrian and Aaron have visited the unit and are really enthusiastic about supporting this cause." To make a donation, visit www.act4addenbrooke's.org.uk

Rock on at arts centre

WINNERS of the 2008 Haverhill Rock Competition, Solstice, headline an evening of music from great bands in the Haverhill area on Friday, July 11. Solstice and Guests starts at 8pm with Indigo, Screwed and Selective Walk each doing a set. No unaccompanied under 14s, proof of age may be required. You'll be pleased to hear that Carrie Bradshaw, everyone's favourite fashion icon next door, is back, and she continues to narrate her own story about sex, love and the fashion-conscious single women of New York. Sex and the City (15) is showing next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 7.45pm. We find Carrie, Samantha, Charlotte and Miranda four years after the hit TV series ended. Dressing up is optional and the bar will be open from 7pm.

Finally the Hamsters are back! Haverhill is their 4,000th gig and they will play one of their rare Jimi Hendrix concerts to celebrate what would have been Jimi's 65th birthday. The Hamsters Play Jimi Hendrix on Friday, July 18, at 8pm. If you haven't managed to see them before, the guitar, bass and drums trio have long been established as a premier blues-rock attraction, having performed 4,000 concerts in 21 years and are widely regarded as the UK's leading interpreters of the music of Jimi Hendrix.

■ ON STAGE... from left Alice Malyon, Catherine Darkins, Annie Powell and Lee Mayes in Little Shop of Horrors.

Pupils return for musical

SEVERAL pupils are returning to the school they have just left to take part in its latest production – the musical Little Shop of Horrors.

Due to the success of its musical production last year, Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College in Haverhill decided to stage another and the show will open its doors to audiences on Thursday, July 17, and Friday, July 18. The popular musical features Seymour Kreibourn, a florist's assistant, whose life is turned around when he comes across an unusual plant after an eclipse. Naming the plant Audrey II after the salesgirl who is his love, Seymour tries to grow the plant, to no avail... until he discovers its favourite food – blood. Tickets are priced at £5 adults and £4 concessions and are available from Tracey North at the college on (01440) 705501 ext. 215.

The show is sponsored by Printwise Group Ltd.

Divining the old-time country cabin sound

WHEN Seattle singer-songwriter Laura Veirs announced her latest tour of England on her website she charmingly referred to the UK as "the old world". It's this fascination with the history of her surroundings which also recently drew her to the Deep South of America to channel the spirits of her musical inspirations. After sneaking songs by The Carter Family, Mississippi John Hurt and Elizabeth Cotton into her live sets for the past decade she finally got around to recording a handful of them for her self-released tour EP Two Beers Veirs. "I first heard these songs almost 10 years ago when I was studying with this teacher in Seattle who helped me learn about country blues and old-time songs," she says.

"Elizabeth Cotton is amazing, she's an American folk legend but so many people don't even know she existed.

"I didn't come from the South and there are real differences between northern and southern people but I play them from the heart because I feel connected to them." It wasn't the first time she had made a musical connection with old time legends The Carter Family. Country music fans will know June Carter married and performed alongside Johnny Cash and the couple recorded most of their later work together in a wooden cabin in Tennessee. When she was putting together her last album Saltbreakers, Laura's Nashville-born boyfriend and producer Tucker Martine – who counts June and Johnny's son John Carter Cash among his friends – arranged for her to record the track To The Country in the cabin.

"It felt almost mystical being in their space," she says.

"Their family pictures were on the wall which was really surreal, there was even a stained glass window with Maybelle Carter in it playing her autoharp.

"The song is about how I want to move to the country so I can see the stars so it was very fitting."

■ Laura Veirs plays The Junction in Cambridge on Thursday. Tickets are £12-£14. To book call (01223) 511511.

Twin sisters play the classics in stereo

■ RHAPSODY IN BLUE... twin sisters Claire and Antoinette Cann will play the music of Gershwin and others at Cambridge's West Road Concert Hall on Saturday.

TWIN pianists Claire and Antoinette Cann will be playing at West Road Concert Hall on Saturday. The pair will give a recital on two pianos which will include Danse Macabre by Saint-Saens, L'Après-midi d'un Faune by Debussy and their own arrangement of Strauss' Blue Danube Waltzes from 6.30pm to 7pm. They will then be joined on stage from 7.30pm by the Cambridge Camerata orchestra for a performance of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue and Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. The identical twin sisters studied piano at the Royal College of Music where they made history by being the first students to have graduated with first class honours in both solo and duo-piano playing.

They have since performed in Germany, Denmark, the US, Canada, New Zealand, the Middle East and Japan and have played alongside orchestras including the Royal Philharmonic, London Philharmonic, BBC Concert Orchestra, Philomusica of London, Wren Orchestra and London Mozart Players. They were also invited by the Queen Mother to play at the Royal Lodge, Windsor, for the Queen and several guests. They have had works written for them by composers including Timothy Blikko, Carey Blyton, Martin Butler, Laurie Dunkin-Wedd, Michael Elliott and Terry Winter Owens. Tickets are £5-£15, £12. PROPERTY

Superb semi in cul-de-sac

THIS superbly presented semi-detached property is located in a pleasant cul-de-sac in White Caville.

Updated to a high standard, it has many fine modern features and is on the market for £164,950.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, kitchen, good size living/dining room, two double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a refitted bathroom.

There are landscaped gardens to the rear and ample parking for two vehicles.

To view the property, call Balmforth on (01440) 707976.

Two-bedroom Victorian terrace

THIS Victorian terrace is set in Primrose Hill, a much-requested central no-through-lane, and comes with the rare benefit of off-road parking. It is on the market with a guide price of £125,000.

The property has two bedrooms, two reception rooms, a bathroom, cellar and kitchen. Outside there is a pleasant, private enclosed garden to the rear and to the front door is a 150ft long front garden, presently a blank canvas, which provides parking.

Many neighbouring properties have successfully built garages on this space.

To find out more or contact Cheffins on (01440) 707076.

PROPERTY

Charming home in cul-de-sac

THIS charming property is in Marcus Close, one of Haverhill's most sought-after cul-de-sacs, and on the market for £272,000.

It has a magnificent open aspect to the rear and is offered with no onward chain.

There are four large bedrooms, an entrance hall, living room, separate dining room, kitchen plus utility, large conservatory and bathroom.

Outside there are well-kept gardens to the front and rear and double garage.

For more information or to arrange a viewing, contact Balmforth on (01440) 707976.

CHEFFINS CONTINUE TO BUCK THE TREND

It's no secret that the housing market is significantly slower, sales levels are considerably down in the town, but despite this

Cheffins are still selling TWICE as many properties as any other local agent*

In recent years selling your property has been easy and the coverage an agent gives has mattered less, but with so much for sale and so few buyers, your choice of agent in this market will mean the difference between selling and not

As more and more local agents have to close due to lack of sale you need an agent with the coverage and strength to market your property to the widest possible audience, not just your local buyers.

CREATE EXTRA SPACE

These days there is a National everything week. From January 21-27 is National Rabbit week, in November is National Balloon Week, and coming up in mid-July is International Bog Day. (There'll be many sleepless nights in anticipation of that one, I'm sure.)

As it happens, this week is the first ever National Shed Week, and, as silly as it might sound, it may well make a difference to your lifestyle.

Charlie Dimmock certainly thinks so, and has teamed up with Ronseal, manufacturer of eco woodcare products, to provide some shed-related tips for maximizing the usefulness of these humble garden features.

Ronseal recently questioned more than 1,000 shed owners across the UK and found that 64% of people never, or rarely, go in them at all. For the main part, sheds are becoming a bit of a dumping ground, and not being utilized as well as they could be.

Charlie Dimmock said: "Sheds are definitely not just for boys - there are a whole host of uses that can make the shed a useful place for the whole family."

With a bit of paint and a creative mind (think 'Pimp My Ride' but for sheds) a crumbling shack could become a beautiful extension of the home or a cosy retreat.

Creating a childrens' den or playroom seems like an interesting idea; leaving your living room free from ill-intentioned crayons and messy poster paints will likely have a certain appeal for most parents. A garden shed/playroom also has the dual function of steering the mess away from the carpet and encouraging the kids to play out in the fresh air.

Another suggestion is to use it as a recycling bay. Those hundreds of different coloured bins that clog up the kitchen could easily be stored out of the house giving you much more space inside.

Failing that, you could always use your shed for storing tools and plants.

National Sheds Week is an initiative run by shed fanatic, Andrew Wilcox. Visit www.shedblog.co.uk for details.

Honda saloon strikes Accord

SOMEBODY did a survey recently which revealed that the vast majority of us cannot programme our DVD players.

So when I sat in the new Accord and faced the array of technology it now provides, I wondered if Honda had not taken a step too far.

Its aim is to raise the Accord to status car level, benchmarking it against such potential rivals as the BMW 3 Series. The list of main competitors gives the clue as to the way Honda is thinking. It includes such cars as Audi A4, Lexus IS and of course the BMW 3 Series.

The quality is there. And the pricing takes it into the status car level, starting at £19,260 on the road for the entry level ES Saloon and running up to £24,560 for the GT level Tourer.

Much of what appears on the car depends on whether you have chosen the Advanced Navigation Pack or the ADAS pack which concerns itself with safety, including getting you and the car ready for a crash if it thinks one is coming.

So it was with interest that I went out with one of Honda's technical people to see how the car would pick up the white lines on either side of your lane, and prepare itself for a crash.

It was unable to find the white lines apparently because it was raining, and it ignored the wall of foam rubber blocks ahead of us, presumably because it wasn't in the mood. If it had found the white lines it would have given us an audible warning if we were drifting towards them.

But if we forget all this playstuff from clever Japanese engineers who, I think, are largely doing things simply because they can, the new Accord comes across as a very desirable car. It handles brilliantly and has a deep quality feel to all the controls. I know the wipers work well because it poured with rain all the time I was driving it in Scotland and the car is capable of cornering reassuringly in the wet road conditions.

The interior is roomy and plushly comfortable. There is the sort of space at the rear that upmarket people expect for their legs. And if you are in a mood to listen to your iPod, or talk hands free on the phone or play with gadgetry then the Accord is for you. A Tourer (or estate car) version is due out later in the year.

I have seen a specimen of it and if the present Accord just isn't roomy enough then it will certainly be worth waiting for.

BASICALLY...

A quality car from Honda designed to lift its game to match that of similar-sized prestige cars now on the market. Honda engineering provides a range of excellent engines plus an impressive chassis.

■ THE SEAT IBIZA SPORTCOUPE... to be unveiled at British Motor Show.

SportCoupe in UK debut

SEAT will be taking the wraps off its new three-door supermini later this month at the British Motor Show.

The Seat SportCoupe will have its world debut at the event starting July 23 at London's ExCeL and adds another significant model to the list of the British Motor Show's unveilings.

The Ibiza has long been a popular model in the UK and the next generation three-door version is expected to be a big seller this side of the English Channel.

The stylish hatchback will be joined at the show by all of its Seat stablemates, giving visitors a view of the Spanish manufacturer's complete range. The Ibiza and Alhambra Ecomotive models will be present for the first time in the UK too.

■ THE IBIZA FIVE-DOOR... on sale this month.

HIGHWAYS AGENCY
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(a)
THE M11 MOTORWAY (JUNCTIONS 8 TO 11, CAMBRIDGESHIRE)
(TEMPORARY 50 MILES PER HOUR SPEED RESTRICTION) ORDER 2008

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the M11 Motorway, in the County of Cambridgeshire, to allow for safety fencing repair and replacement work in the central reserve to be carried out in safety.
It is expected that the works will take place over 7 weeks starting on, or after, Monday 21 July 2008. The Order will come into force on 14 July 2008 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The works will take place overnight, 8pm Mondays - Thursdays and 5.30am the following mornings, 9pm Fridays and 4.30am, 9pm Saturdays and 5.30am, and 10pm on Sundays and 5.30am.

The effect of the Order will be to impose a 50 miles per hour speed restriction on the M11 -

(a) northbound carriageway from the centre point of the Stretthall Road overbridge to its junction with the entry slip road at Junction 10, a distance of 9840 metres approximately, and

(b) southbound carriageway from the centre point of the Hauxton High Street overbridge to its junction with the entry slip road at Junction 9, a distance of 11344 metres approximately.

The speed restriction, which will not apply to emergency service vehicles, will be clearly signed for the duration of the works.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990 PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) REGULATIONS 1990

APPLICATION FOR LISTED BUILDING CONSENT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Essex County Council intends to apply to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government for Listed Building Consent for the provision of alterations to the existing front entrance of the school to allow for the reduction of the existing wall by four courses, construction of steps to the existing landing, extend the retaining wall and the installation of a new window at Newport Free Grammar School, Bury Water Lane, Newport, Saffron Walden - CC/UT/74/08/LB.

Newport Free Grammar School is a Grade II Listed Building and is situated within the Newport Conservation Area.
Members of the public may inspect a copy of the application and other documents submitted with it at Uttlesford District Council Planning Office, Council Offices, London Road, Saffron Walden and at Saffron Walden Library, 2 King Street, Saffron Walden during normal Library hours from 10 July 2008 until 31 July 2008.

Anyone who wishes to make representations or objections in respect of this application should e-mail them to MineralsandwasteDC@essexcc.gov.uk or write to the undersigned by 31 July 2008. Any such representations or objections will be taken into account by the Council with the result that they may be made available to the public. They will also be sent with the application for Listed Building Consent to the Secretary of State.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(a)
THE A1 TRUNK ROAD (CROSSHALL BRIDGE, EATON FORD, CAMBRIDGESHIRE)
(TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2008

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to make an Order on the A1 Trunk Road in the County of Cambridgeshire to allow for principal bridge inspection work to be carried out in safety.

It is expected that the works would take place over one night (9pm-6am) on, or after, Friday 1 August 2008. The Order would come into force on 29 July 2008 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The effect of the Order would be to close the A1 northbound entry slip road leading to Crosshall Bridge near Eaton Ford, diverting vehicles via the B1048 and A1 southbound to join the A1 northbound at the A1/A428 junction.

The closure (which would not apply to emergency service or traffic officer vehicles or a vehicle being used in connection with the bridge inspection) and diversion route would be clearly signed.

CAMBRIDGE

A world of opportunities

www.cam.ac.uk/jobs/Human Resources Division*Postgraduate Skills Training Officer (Part-time)

£25,888 - 33,780 pa 0.5 FTE pro rata

The funds for this post are available for 2 years in the first instance.

Would you like to improve the quality of graduate students' experience at Cambridge University? The Graduate Development Programme (GDP) offers development opportunities for graduate students encompassing teaching, research and transferable skills. We are seeking a trainer to join our team to provide transferable skills provision to graduate students across the School of Arts and Humanities. The GDP programme has been very popular with participants and has undergone large expansion in the past academic year, being praised in the Quality Assurance Agency institutional review.

The current transferable skills programme offers a wide variety of events such as 'Starting Your PhD', writing skills and time management. All provision will need to be tailored to the commissioning faculties and departments across the School of Arts and Humanities. You will be responsible for co-ordinating, designing and delivering courses as well as building links across the School, including with graduate training coordinators and administrators, and more widely.

You should have a PhD in an arts or humanities discipline. You should be able to demonstrate knowledge and experience of the training needs and issues faced by graduate students and have an understanding of the transferable skills agenda. Good training, interpersonal, communication and presentation skills are essential for this post as well as the excellent project management skills the Programme requires.

Initial enquires can be made to Dr Emma Williams via graduate.development@admin.cam.ac.uk. Applications including a CV and covering letter should be sent to Aless McCann, Academic Staff Development, 25 Trumpington Street, Cambridge, CB2 1QA

A Great Opportunity in Pharmaceutical Research and Development Based on the Cambridge Science Park

Mundipharma Research Ltd provides world class research services to the Mundipharma/Napp Group of independent associated pharmaceutical companies throughout Europe. With an international reputation for innovative research and development covering a range of therapeutic areas from Analgesia to Respiratory to Oncology, our multidisciplinary team of over 200 dedicated professionals are based in Cambridge (UK) and Limburg (Germany).

Project Co-ordinator – Project Management Department

A fantastic opportunity has arisen in the Project Management Department for an enthusiastic and proactive individual to provide comprehensive support to one of the Executive European R&D Project Leaders in the delivery of European and Worldwide projects.

This is a challenging and varied role, where you will take an active part in overseeing the progress of all assigned projects. By tracking deliverables and following up actions with Project Team Representatives, you will help to ensure that all projects are delivered on time, to cost, performance and quality. You will play a key role in identifying and reporting anomalies. As well as this, you will be responsible for providing full administrative support to the Executive European R&D Project Leader, by arranging and attending a wide variety of meetings, taking minutes, booking venues, arranging international travel and diary management.

You will have solid administrative experience and ideally come from a science/medical related background. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, self motivation and an organised, methodical approach with attention to detail are the key to your success. You will be a good team player, who remains calm under pressure and who can make decisions and be accountable.

In return, we offer a competitive salary, contributory pension scheme, non-contractual bonus and private medical care.
Ready to be part of a successful organisation?

Please send your CV and covering letter, stating your current salary package, to Alison Kelly,
HR Department, Mundipharma Research Limited, Cambridge Science Park, Milton Road, Cambridge, CB4 0GW or email Alison.kelly@mundipharma-rd.eu

Closing date for applications is Friday, 25 July 2008.

PETER DANN LIMITED

Babraham Bioscience Technologies Ltd

Porter / Stores Person

Starting salary range £14,350 - £14,900 per annum

The Babraham Research Campus (BRC) is the home of the Babraham Institute, Babraham Bioscience Technologies Ltd (BBT) and over 30 biotechnology companies housed in the BBT Biocubator buildings. This thriving Campus provides a unique and highly successful environment, bringing together academic and commercial excellence.

BBT is looking for a Porter / Stores Person who will undertake a dual role which will provide portering facilities across the BRC and support the Stores facility as a goods-in operative. Duties will include setting up and implementing a collection and delivery service of stores items to BBT's newest Biocubator buildings, the monitoring of weekly liquid nitrogen deliveries to the buildings and the checking of deliveries into Stores to ensure they are correct. The post-holder will also be responsible for ensuring gas and chemical cylinders are stored in the appropriate sheds and that stocks are maintained.

The successful applicant will have experience of working as a porter and/or a stores person and will ideally have experience of driving a forklift. Applicants should also have excellent organisation and prioritisation skills, have the ability to work alone and unsupervised and work effectively as part of a team. Experience of working in a scientific environment would also be advantageous.

Starting salary will be according to qualifications and experience. Please email bbt.personnel@babraham.co.uk or telephone 01223 496365 for an information pack and application form quoting reference MN2/BBT/P. The closing date for completed applications is Tuesday, 22 July 2008. Interviews for shortlisted candidates will take place on Thursday, 31 July 2008

External Relations Officer

Starting salary in range £19,566 - £21,739 p.a. for term time working

The Babraham Institute is a charity which is world renowned for its research in life sciences that leads to new medicines and treatments for human diseases.

An exciting opportunity is available to join the active External Relations team at the Babraham Institute, delivering the secondary school and community liaison programme, and sixth-form/undergraduate placements scheme. Reporting to the Head of External Relations, the postholder will also participate in other aspects of external relations activities, for example by writing information for the intranet and internet sites and information pamphlets, working on corporate brochures, answering scientific information queries from the public, assisting with press liaison, and liaising with the Parish Council and Babraham School. The postholder will also manage our scientific information database.

Candidates will have a first degree in an area of biological science relevant to the Institute's research and either a PhD or PGCE/Bed. It is essential that candidates additionally have previous experience in public understanding of science/schools work and in writing about science for non-specialist audiences. The successful postholder will have excellent interpersonal, communication and presentation skills and the ability to meet deadlines on multiple concurrent projects.

This position is to work during school term time only (39 weeks per year).

The successful applicant will be paid for 39 weeks per year, but the salary will be divided into 12 equal payments and paid monthly. Further information about the Institute can be found on our website. Application forms and further details are available electronically from our website (www.babraham.ac.uk), or by contacting our 24-hour Recruitment Line on 01223 496365, or e-mail: babraham.personnel@bbsrc.ac.uk. On applying please quote reference ERO/P. Closing date for completed applications is 31 July 2008.

CRICKET SPOTLIGHT

Dellar proves to be all-round hit

ADAM Dellar starred with both bat and ball for Haverhill in their 53-run Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Two success at Witham on Saturday.

The all-rounder made an unbeaten 79 and Scott Webb struck 60 to help the visitors score 222 for 6.

And Dellar took 4 for 68 with his off-spin, while vice-captain Simon Youngs bagged 4 for 48 as the home side were dismissed for 169.

■ WESTON COLVILLE once again fell just short at the death as they went down by one run to Yaxley in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League.

Adie Westley's team have been plagued by wafer thin defeats this season, but a five-wicket haul from Matt Daniels seemed to have done the trick as Yaxley limited to 188 for 9 off their 48 overs.

Harry Meddle made an unbeaten 48 from No 4, after Trevor Westley opened with 32, but they struggled with the bat, finally losing their last wicket, two runs short, seven balls before the end.

Adams Harrison Midweek League

Horseheath cash in as rivals feel the heat

A BAD week for Abington saw them lose on two nights running, leaving Horseheath firm favourites to take the championship.

The forthcoming match between the two teams could now be the title decider.

Abington's woes saw them suffer a seven-wicket home defeat by Haverhill.

The hosts made 130 for 7, as Simon Youngs (3 for 32) and Josh Meekings (3 for 20) did the damage for the visitors.

Sam Powell (29) and Adam Dellar (29 not out) saw Haverhill home.

Against Babraham, Abington were put under pressure by Steve Smith, who took 4 for 14 to limit them to 78 for 9.

Andy Palmer's 35 eased Babraham, the reigning champions, home by six wickets.

Babraham also notched a five-wicket success over Weston Colville.

Evan Gaud with 46 not out and Geoff Curtis (28) were the mainstays of a Colville innings of 117 for 5.

The Palmer brothers, Andy (44no) and Chris (30no) then saw the home side to victory.

■ STERLING EFFORT ... but Mick Ketteridge's wickets and runs were in vain for Horseheath as they lost to Cambridge St Giles.

■ HORSEHEATH were beaten by 34 runs in their Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One match at Cambridge St Giles.

Jim Hill and Jamie Salmon hit half-centuries as the hosts put 238 for 7 on the board as the former scored 63 and the latter acquired 55.

Visiting skipper Gary Ellis

(3 for 50) and Mick Ketteridge (3 for 38) were the best with the ball for Horseheath.

And although Mick Ketteridge and Robert Ketteridge both made 46, Horseheath were dismissed for 204.

Ellis said: "We lost wickets at silly times and it just didn't go for us."

Richard Cutting's 27 helped Hundon to a three-wicket triumph over Highpoint, who were restricted to 102 for 6.

A big scoring match saw Wrattling Lions win in the last over at Acton to keep the pressure on the leaders.

Acton's Adam Cooper (38) and Nigel Chapman (49) starred in a total of 152 for 8.

However, Tony Steel with 34 and an excellent innings of 89 not out from Russell Davies saw promotion-chasing Lions to a five-wicket win.

Mill Green won by five wickets at Babraham II in Division 3B.

Babraham's Sam Palmer with 25, Sam Dew (32 no) and Jeff Free (62) posted 140 for 3, but Mill Green responded with 141 for 5, with useful contributions from Will Brown (47) James Marchant (30) and Dave Day (25).

Weston Colville II chalked up an impressive 11-run success at Castle Manor.

Chris Glover and Baz Oram both made 53 as the visitors opened with 147 for 3. Carl Thompson then took 5 for 38 as Manor were all gone for 136 in the final over.

GOLF ROUND-UP

Hammett, Longley and Craig top their divisions

A BRISK wind built up during the day, making conditions tricky for the later starters in Haverhill Golf Club's IFF Challenge round.

In the lower division, Andrew Craig set the pace returning a four-under-par 66, which defied all challengers throughout the course of the day.

The nearest players to him were Ted Fairhead and Mark Stanton, who were three in arrears.

Owen Longley led in the mid section and Bob Hammett's best score of the day, a 64, triumphed in the higher group.

Leading scores:

Division One: A Craig 66, E Fairhead, M Stanton 69, E Bareham, M Bennett 70, A Carter, D Pipe, E Kiddle, P McLennan, G Carroll 72, T Marsh 74, M Macnamara, D Galloway 75, M Warren 78, P Garner, C Vince, J Warwick, J Thomson.

Division Two: O Longley 65, R Rand, S Johnstone 71, M Delana, W Lancel 72, B Campbell 73, K Ward 74, B Jones 79, A Titterton, J Plumridge 80, J Stokes, D Humphries 81, N Felton 84, D Quinney 85.

Division Three: R Hammett 64, K Power 66, P Bowes, R Peyton 67, S Haworth 68, B Shuter, D Burns 69, R Spittle 70, A Gill 74, A Lord, M McGarr 76, J Fox 77, I Raper 79, M Everitt 83, P Owen 85.

■ Two Haverhill men's teams travelled to Bourn and by evening it was honours even. The seniors lost their match by 5½-1½ games in the morning, but a club side came away winning by a 2½-1½ margin later in the day.

The also seniors lost 4½-3½ away to Fynn Valley.

■ Haverhill's Tolly Cobbold team dropped out of this year's competition, losing by five holes at Seckford.

There had been everything to play for at lunch when there were only two holes separating the teams, but course knowledge came to the fore as the visitors experienced clubbing difficulties at several of the par three holes.

■ Haverhill's duo Pat Kennedy and Sue Carr reached a further round of the Daily Mail Foursomes following a 3&1 victory in Kent.

■ The Charity Classic at Coupals Road, raised a five-figure sum. Howard Ward's Metropal A team took top spot on 124 points, followed by the Leo Sayer Quartet, also on 124, and the Junior Team on 120.

TENNIS

Haverhill B suffer a whitewash

HAVERHILL Lawn Tennis Club's B team lost 8-0 to Bury Victory C in the Norfolk & Suffolk League, Division Three.

Ray Goddard and young Ross Tobin had a really good contest against Ron Mather and Tim Richardson, narrowly losing 6-8 on the tie break and then 3-6.

The Haverhill pair then lost to Fred

Grimsby and Kevan Collins 4-6, 2-6. Peter Cundall and Stephen Withers were also second best to Grimsby and Collins 0-6, 2-6, with the score not a true reflection of the closeness, as many games were going to deuces. Cundall and Withers also lost to Mather and Richardson 1-6, 2-6.

Haverhill juniors excel on club finals weekend

A WEEKEND of action at Haverhill Tennis Club saw some impressive displays from the top juniors of Haverhill and surrounding villages at the club's annual Junior Open. In the U10 boys' event, Gregory Coston and Rory Elston fought their way through to the final where Coston won 4-1. In the third and fourth play-off Aldrin George, playing in his first tournament, beat Henry Turner 4-1 to take the third spot. In the U14 boys, Ross Tobin was a class above everyone in the event, losing only three games in seven sets of tennis to win the U14 boys' final against Toby Pink, who had done extremely well to qualify for the final. Adam Kelly had a long battle with James Willett, winning 13-11 in the final set tie-break to finish third. The U12 girls saw a great final played between county player Poppy Philipps and Harriet Patrick. Patrick took the first set 6-5 and was winning in the second set. She looked to be heading for victory but somehow Philipps managed to take the second set 6-4 and then win the final championship tie-break 10-6. The U14 girls' final was played between Geena Strowger and Rachel Jeffs for more than two hours in the heat and wind. After Strowger had taken the first set 6-5, Jeffs fought back to win the next two 6-2, 6-3 for a hard-fought victory. The U16 girls' final was played straight after the U14s' match, and they also had to contend with the windy conditions. Abi Cartwright-Thomas played some excellent tennis and took the first set 6-1, Lucy Hardwick responded well in the second set, but could not stop her opponent, who won 6-3. Charlee Strowger and Rachel Jeffs played in the third and fourth play-off, which Jeffs won 6-1, 6-2. ■ For more information about joining the tennis club or coaching, please ring Robert Jeffs on 07906 814108.

Larry's happy to shop local

LARRY Billings is looking to install a more local feel to his newly-assembled Haverhill Rovers squad ahead of his first foray in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division.

The new boss succeeded caretaker manager and long-time captain Marcus Hunt, who had been filling in since Steve Taylor quit as Rovers manager in February, before leaving to join British Gas Business Southern League, Midland Division AFC Sudbury.

Billings went on a recruitment drive in the town by putting out adverts and was pleased to see it had worked when 35 players turned out for the first pre-season training session.

The manager said: "We lost some good players early on with the likes of Marcus Hunt and Paul Shaw leaving, but we have to come to terms with that and move on.

"We want to bring local players back to the club and build a team up, but I was pleasantly surprised with the amount of local lads that came to training.

"We have a good size squad and I'd like to think after the friendlies we'll be ready for the start of the season in August."

Billings is not afraid of the challenge ahead of him as he attempts to prove himself at a new level of management.

The manager is looking to not only keep Rovers in the Premier Division, but improve on last term's final position of 10th.

He added: "Ninth would be the aim as it is an improvement on last season. I think with the quality we have, we can carry ourselves well."

■ Haverhill kick off their pre-season friendly programme on Friday, July 25, when they host Hurdon in the Keith Willis Memorial Cup.

■ BIG LOSS . . . Summer departure Paul Shaw, who has quit Hamlet Croft.
